leader application

Please carefully consider your participation in North Carolina '10. The decision to join any mission trip team should be done with much thought, consideration, and prayer. Think carefully about why you want to join this mission experience. Consider why you want to be a part of this team. Pray earnestly about your attitude and your involvement.

A mission trip is not a social event, it is not a retreat, and it is not a vacation. It will stretch and pressure you in ways you have not been challenged ever in your life. It will require you to sacrifice and serve in ways you have not done before. It will require you to put others ahead of your own interests and work together as a team. A mission trip will challenge you physically, emotionally, relationally, and spiritually; and it will require you to look at the deepest parts of your life.

"But don't begin until you count the cost. For who would begin construction of a building without first getting estimates and then checking to see if there is enough money to pay the bills?"

Please keep the cost sheet with payment schedule for your records.

Completed application and $200 non-refundable deposit are due
March 7, 2010.

Some Basic Questions...

Where is Casar, North Carolina?

Located just 60 miles northwest of Charlotte, NC, Casar is located at the edge of beautiful South Mountain State Park.

Who are Christian Enterprises and Jim Green?

Christian Enterprises is the non-profit organization that Jim Green has established to lead mission trips of youth and adults around the western hemisphere. Jim has been involved in ministry for over 50 years, faithfully serving God wherever led and in whatever capacity his calling takes him. Post-Katrina, Jim and his wife Judy committed to 2 years in Biloxi, MS in an effort to rebuild the city. There are few people at his age that have both the energy and excitement to lead teenagers on a venture like this as well as the passion of serving God flow so freely through his veins. Currently, Jim lives in Auburn, Alabama spending his time leading short term mission trips all around the Western Hemisphere.

How much will this project cost?

The cost for this week-long missionary journey is $600 per person. To help offset this cost, we will have several fundraisers throughout the year beginning as early as November. If you stay ahead of the game, you can use money raised from fundraisers as your scheduled payments. It is 100% possible to raise the ENTIRE amount needed for your trip... if you work hard at the fundraisers.

What does the cost include?

Practically everything! Included: all of our lodging, food while in North Carolina, ground transportation, and work project materials. Souvenirs are your responsibility, of course, as is food during our traveling to and from North Carolina. This would be lunch and dinner on Saturday and lunch on both Sundays. These would be anything from fast food type meals (McDonalds, Wendy's, Subway, etc.) to the home cooking of Cracker Barrel.

What will we do?

We will be working at South Mountain Retreat Center and Camp. Our primary focus for this trip will be on relationships, evangelism, discipleship, fellowship, the work project, and cultural exposure within our group. Our work projects will vary from working on expanding the camp so that they can open and minister to large groups of people. We will be working to help finish the dining hall, build an amphitheatre, and continue to expand on the low ropes course that we built last year.

Where will we stay? Where will we eat?

We will be staying at South Mountain Retreat Center and Camp. We will be sleeping in fully air conditioned and very clean dorms. The dorms are less than 4 years old and are in great shape! All meals in North Carolina will be provided by Jim Green's talented wife, Judy. She will cook and prepare all of our meals during the week. We will NOT go hungry!

Who should go on this trip? What if I am not in Middle School or on the YMT?

Any 6th-8th grade student or Youth Ministry Team Leader. This mission trip is ideal for middle schoolers who have never gone on a missionary journey before as well as those that were on the trip last year. Since there is a great interest and a limited number of spots, we will have a waiting list for anyone not in 6th-8th grade or on the youth ministry team. If there are any available spots on the trip, we will fill them with the people on the waiting list. To be put on the waiting list, you must fill out and submit an application.

What are the requirements?

- 1) Parental permission for anyone under 18 years of age.
- 2) Participation in all pre-trip preparation meetings.
- 3) A heart for people.
- 4) A positive attitude.

(Date)

Dear Family and Friends,

I am writing to let you know of a great opportunity God has given me and how you can help. On July 11th I will be leaving with HOPE's Youth Ministry on a mission trip to Casar, North Carolina. While in Casar, I will be part of a team serving people, working with local organizations that help people in poverty, serving the poor and the elderly, and just being an example of Jesus Christ through our actions. I will be in Casar from July 11th-18th, 2010. I am so excited that God is going to work through me ... and in me, while on this trip.

As my family and friends, you can help me in two very important ways. First and most importantly, I NEED YOUR PRAYERS! We will be traveling to a different culture and ministering to people who are both physically and spiritually poor. It will be only through God's power that this trip can be successful. Second, a trip like this requires financial support. I am trusting God to provide this, and I am asking you to help. I am committed to going to Casar because I believe it is where God wants me to go and I am asking you to be a part of my experience by helping to support this mission trip. Please make checks payable to "HOPE Church", with my name in the memo section. All money received will be tax deductible and go directly into an account to be used for my trip expenses (travel, registration, supplies, room and board, etc.).

Thank you for your love and support. Please pray for our team as we prepare for Casar, pray for the people, and please remember to pray July 11th-19th!

Sincerely,

(Your Name Here)
